Re: Release of subscriber data in Multnomah County

Dear Kevin:

The Mt. Hood Cable Regulatory Commission, at its April meeting, asked you to provide information on the circumstances of the Seattle subscriber privacy lawsuit and the potential release of Multnomah County subscriber personally identifiable information. While you stated at the May Commission meeting that you believed there was no disclosure of MHCRC franchise area personally identifiable information, you had not yet met with Comcast legal counsel to confirm that or to determine whether the release of information in the Seattle lawsuit was the result of a court subpoena.

Specifically, we would like to know if Comcast or any agent or affiliate of Comcast has released subscriber data of any Comcast subscriber in Multnomah County, Oregon to third parties in connection with the Settlement Support Center litigation and related processes referenced in Leadbetter v. Comcast Cable Communications, Class Action No. 052 11415 1 KNT, filed in King County Superior Court in the State of Washington. More particularly, we wish to ascertain if any Multnomah County subscriber data (including IP addresses or anything similar) has been released by Comcast pursuant to Capitol Records, Inc. et al v. John Doe, No. 04-CV-3011 (US District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania) or any analogous litigation.

Please reply within 30 days of the date of this letter.

Sincerely,

David C. Olson
Director
