

Ann Goldenberg Bio

MHCRC staff is pleased to welcome Ann Goldenberg as the new MHCRC staff director and manager for the Portland Office for Community Technology. Her first day in the office is September 12.

Ann brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to the position. Ann founded the Tampa Bay Art & Education Network (TBAE) and led it to organizational and financial success as the Chief Executive Officer. She grew the TBAE into a digital multi-media organization serving exceptional educational and artistic programming in Hillsborough County, Florida, on local cable channels and globally on the Internet. She has executive produced over 500 television programs. Ann has held leadership positions on local, state and national boards, such as the Alliance for Community Media and the National Association of Telecommunication Officers and Advisors. She has worked for three decades to serve the public interests in media and communications public policy and legislation.

We are excited to have Ann join the MHCRC staff team to continue to champion and lead community focused technology policy and initiatives. Staff will provide Ann's contact information as soon as it is available.
